Council to Honor Ex-Chief of CIA

The Dallas Council on World Affairs will honor Allen W. Dulles at a noon luncheon Oct. 28 at the Baker Hotel.

Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, will speak on "The American Intelligence Service—Its Role in Our National Security."

In the diplomatic service since 1916 Dulles was appointed director of the CIA by President Eisenhower in 1953. He served in that post until 1961 and is now legal counsel for ~~Robertson & Brownwell~~, a New York City law firm.
